

WHAT TO DO IN CASE OF A RETIRED CARRIER'S DEATH

Reference for Survivors

The survivor should notify:

1. For the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS):
Office of Personnel Management
Employee Service and Records Center
PO Box 45
Boyers, PA 16017-0045

For the Federal Employees' Retirement System (FERS):
Office of Personnel Management
FERS
PO Box 45
Boyers, PA 16017-0045

When writing to the Office of Personnel Management, you should request:

SF 2800 Application for Death Benefits
FE 6 Claim for Benefits, Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance

Include the deceased employee's name, CSA number, your name and signature. Fill out these forms and return them with a certified copy of the death certificate in each envelope which you are provided. Survivor annuities are not paid automatically. They must be applied for. Return any checks addressed to the deceased employee to the address of the Treasury Department on the envelope in which they were mailed.
2. Notify the secretary-treasurer of the National Rural Letter Carriers' Association and the state secretary of the state RLCA where the deceased was a member. Give the Social Security number of the deceased employee.
3. If the deceased employee was retired from military service, notify the commanding officer of the nearest military installation.
4. If the deceased employee was in receipt of a benefit payment from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), you may notify the VA by calling (800) 827-1000. Spouses may also be entitled to VA death benefits and assistance.
5. Change deceased employee's name to survivor's name on all-important papers.

6. Notify insurance companies for policies on life (if Provident Guild, write Secretary-Treasurer, PO Box 105, Minster, OH 45865-0105; if Federal Employees Group Life Insurance, contact local personnel office; if NRLCA Life Insurance, contact 1630 Duke St., Alexandria, VA 22314-3467, hospitalization (if NRLCA, write Rural Carrier Benefit Plan, 1630 Duke St., Alexandria, VA 22314-3467, house and automobile (if NGIC Insurance Company, contact P.O. Box 66937, St. Louis, MO 63166-6937; or contact your local insurance carrier).
7. Notify the Social Security Administration.
8. Notify the Internal Revenue Service and state income tax department.
9. Notify local bank(s) and/or credit unions.
10. Check safety deposit box and instructions.
11. Have funeral director obtain the appropriate number of death certificates needed. He/she can advise how many.
12. If previously married, secure divorce papers.
13. If presently married, secure marriage license.
14. If the cause of death is due to a job-related injury, the Office of Workers' Compensation Programs (OWCP) will pay up to $1,000 burial expenses, minus any amount the VA pays.
15. In the case of job-related death, the survivor may also apply for an annuity from the OWCP. He/she can then choose the highest annuity.
16. Notify the local post office where the employee worked concerning the memorial services.
17. As a surviving spouse, you are eligible to continue receiving the NRLCA magazine. Contact your state secretary to see if the state pays for subscriptions. If it does not, you can mail a check for $20 to the NRLCA to continue receiving the magazine.

Note: A will should be seriously considered. If there is no will, an executor must be named and an expensive court action could result.
